

Shelley Row is the new Program Director of the JPO

FHWA has announced the selection of Ms. Shelley J. Row to head the Intelligent Transportation Systems (ITS) Joint Program Office (JPO). ITS Midwest congratulates Shelley on her new position and we look forward to working with her.

Since 2003, Shelley has served as the Associate Executive Director for Technical Programs at the Institute of Transportation Engineers (ITE). Prior to joining ITE, she worked for almost 16 years with FHWA in both Headquarters and the field. She served as a Transportation Engineer in FHWA's North Carolina, Arizona and California Division Offices, and as an Engineering Systems Manager in the Agency's Georgia Division. While in FHWA Headquarters, she served as Travel Management Coordinator, ITS Deployment Team Leader and Director, Office of Transportation Operations from April 2000 to June 2003.
